ually each one of them will see the flash of interest and sympathy in the blue eyes of Commander Newberry as he listens to their troubles or waves aside their proffer of thanks.

If you ask how Commander Newberry is regarded by the men who served with and under him, the answer is as brief as it is frequent:
"He's a man's man," they say, "and a fighter, and he gets things done."

His sister, Mrs. Joy, is also well-known in Washington. Her husband, Col. Joy, was stationed here for about a year during which time Mrs. Joy divided her time between Detroit and Washington, being called out home frequently by the extensive relief work she was carrying on out there. Then she has attended all of the sessions of the "Girls' National Service School Camp" and was an officer last year, as was also her daughter, Mrs. Howard Lee. Mrs. Joy was one of the prominent figures in the last D. A. R. Congress here also. She is a delightful and charming person besides being very good looking and the wearer of stunning clothes. I am hoping that we will see lots of her when her brother takes his seat in the Senate. The Joys usually spend their summers at Prides Crossing, Mass., and as far as I know, will be up there most of this summer.
Equally interesting, both socially and politically, are the McDermicks. only in their case, Mrs. McCormick is phur Springs where they went by motor, via the Shenandoah Valley, reaching there after several mis-happenings, ending in being towed into White Sulphur. Two of our diplomats are down at White Sulphur for a while, Henry Prather Fletcher, Ambassador to Mexico, and David R. Francis, formerly Ambassador to Russia. With Mr. Fletcher is Basil Miles, chief of the Russian Bureau of the State Department, and with Mr. Francis is his son, Talton T. Francis and his wife, of St.

Louis.

Did you know that Canada may soon have a new governor general; that the Duke of Devonshire may retire shortly? It is rumored that if he does the office will be offered to the Earl of Athlone, brother of Queen Mary, who would have succeeded the Duke of Connaught as governor general of Canada had it not been for his duties with the British army.

The Earl of Athlone was born April 14, 1874, and is the son of the Duke of Teck. He was educated at Eton and later became a general staff officer with the rank of brigadier general. He served in Matabele-land in 1896 and with the Seventh Rusars in South Africa in 1899, being mentioned in dispatches during this service there. He was appointed governor general of Canada in 1914, but did not take office. He was created Earl of Athlone on July 17, 1917. He was married on February 10, 1904, to Princess Alice.

HERE COMES BRIDE AND GROOM

Everybody knows what Irene Castle looks like. Everybody's asking, what is the new husband of the famous dancer like. Here he is, with his bride, snapped as they were leaving the Little Church Around the Corner, New York, after their marriage. It's Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tremain now. Tremain is a son of the deputy governor of the Second Federal Reserve Bank, of Ithaca, N. Y. It was fifteen months ago that Vernon Castle was killed in the air service.

not only interesting socially but also politically. She is chairman of the National Republican Women's Executive Committee and yields great political influence herself. She is a true daughter of the late Senator Mark Hanna who brought her up on politics and she loves them. It has even been suggested that if the Congress passes the Susan B. Anthony equal suffrage amendment and the chances are that it will, and if one of the big parties should pick a woman candidate for Vice President (a big if) Mrs. McCormick would run for the office. She is not only chairman of the Republicans National Women's Executive Committee but she is an ardent advocate of woman's suffrage and has been so since quite young; is a skillful speaker and a past master at the art of politics. She worked in the closest relationship with her father, beginning when she was a child, and she has never told this in an epoch of unusual and unexpected events.

Many think that it is largely due to Mrs. McCormick that her husband has advanced to the political heights he has reached. He is said to have his eye on the Presidential seat.

McCormick, it is pointed out, would be the logical "middle ground" candidate upon which both the extreme Republican elements could combine. They think he would be acceptable to both the Penrose-Watson leaders, and to the Kenyon-Knox boosters. Borah and Taft are outside this combination, and undoubtedly will oppose Mc-Cormick's selection.

Medill McCormick was a member of the Illinois legislature, a Congressman-at-large from that State and last November defeated the administration whip, James Hamilton Lewis, for the Senatorial to-Lewis had worn for six years. Mrs.
McCormick was her husband's campaign adviser and political prophet in those successes. It was said that she had hitched her wagon to the White House star when she married Medill in 1902, and set about to make her husband President, as her father had made McKinley Chief Executive.

Any way, we know that the Mc-Cormicks, both of them, are to play a prominent part politically.
Socially they won't be active for some time as they are in mourning for the Senator's father, Robert S.
McCormick, one time Ambassador to Russia and later to France. Just now they are down at White Sulphur Springs where they went by
motor, via the Shenandoah Valley,
reaching there after several mis-
White Sulphur. Two of our diplomats are down at White Sulphur
for a while, Henry Prather Fletcher,
Ambassador to Mexico, and David
R. Francis, formerly Ambassador to Russia. With Mr. Fletcher is Ba-
sil Miles, chief of the Russian Bureau of the State Department, and
with Mr. Francis is his son, Tal-
ton T. Francis and his wife, of St.
Louis.
